1 Aims

1.1 Clapgate Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children. We recognise that children may face different forms of abuse and we work together to protect children from harm. As well as being abused by adults, children can be abused by other young people. This is known as ‘child on child abuse’. Clapgate is committed to preventing child on child abuse and will protect children that may be suffering, or at risk of suffering harm perpetrated by another child. We recognise that child on child abuse is abuse and should never be tolerated or passed off as “banter”, “just having a laugh” or “part of growing up”. We maintain an attitude of ‘it could happen here’ and act in the best interests of the child at all times.

2 Definitions

2.1 The following terms and associated definitions will be used throughout this policy.

- ‘Staff’ or ‘members of staff’ refers to all teaching, non-teaching, support, supply, peripatetic, contract staff, governors, volunteers and trustees working in or on behalf of the school.
- Child/children refers to any young person under the age of 18.
- Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined as; protecting children from maltreatment; preventing impairment of children’s mental and physical health or development; ensuring that children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care and taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes.¹
- Child on child abuse refers to any scenario where a child under the age of 18 abuses another child under the age of 18. It can take place online or offline. The children involved do not have to be the same age and the perpetrator may be older or younger than the victim. Child on child abuse could include (but is not limited to);

 - physical abuse such as hitting, kicking, shaking, biting, hair pulling, or otherwise causing physical harm;
 - sexual violence, such as rape, assault by penetration and sexual assault;
 - sexual harassment, such as sexual comments, remarks, jokes and online sexual harassment, which may be stand-alone or part of a broader pattern of abuse;
 - upskirting, which typically involves taking a picture under a person’s clothing without them knowing, with the intention of viewing their genitals or buttocks to obtain sexual gratification, or cause the victim humiliation, distress or alarm;
 - sexting (also known as youth produced sexual imagery); and
 - initiation/hazing type violence and rituals.²
 - abuse within intimate personal relationships and/or teenage relationship abuse;

8 Procedures to minimise child on child abuse

8.1 The school have a responsibility to minimise opportunities for child on child abuse. We do this by:

- Providing a developmentally appropriate PSHE scheme (JIGSAW) which develops pupils understanding of acceptable behaviour and keeping themselves safe.
- Having a robust Online/Internet safety programme which develops pupils’ knowledge, understanding and skills, to ensure personal safety and self-protection when using the internet and social networking.
- Having robust monitoring and filtering systems in place to ensure pupils are safe and act appropriately when using information technology in school.
- Having systems in place for any pupil to raise concerns with staff, knowing that they will be listened to, believed and valued.
- Delivering targeted work on assertiveness and keeping safe to those pupils identified as being at risk.
- Developing robust risk assessments and providing targeted work for pupils identified as being a potential risk to other pupils.

8.2 We recognise that some children may be more vulnerable to child on child abuse than others. For example, children who have already experienced abuse, those that have special educational needs or disabilities (SEND), children living in care and children who are LGBTQ+ and/or have other protected characteristics under the Equality Act 2010 may be more likely to face child on child abuse than other children.

8.3 We address child on child abuse through our curriculum, in line with Relationships Education, Sex and Relationships Education and Health Education.

The Designated Safeguarding Lead/Team will take contextual factors into account when managing the report.

9.4 The Designated Safeguarding Lead will always consider the following;

- The wishes of the victim in terms of how they want to proceed. The victims will be given as much control as is reasonably possible over decisions regarding how any investigation will be progressed and any support that they will be offered;

- Both the chronological and developmental ages of the children involved;
- Any power imbalance between the children, including consideration of the age of children and whether children have special educational needs or disabilities;
- The impact on the victim;
- If the alleged incident is a one-off or a sustained pattern of abuse; and
